SPECIAL NOTICE

The hospitalization of our Dr. Geoffrey Bromiley has naturally been a source of concern to us all. I am pleased to report that he is resting well, is ambulatory, is in good spirits, and looks forward to "active duty." However, his physician has prescribed a rest period of six weeks or so, which means that Dr. Bromiley will not be teaching during the Winter Quarter. Accordingly, the course CH 523, Barth Seminar, has been cancelled. (Affected students may like to consider either Colin Brown's course on Kierkegaard -- TH 531, Tuesdays 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., or Marv Erisman's course on Reinhold Niebuhr -- TH 523, Thursdays 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.) CH 500, Early Church History, will be offered at the scheduled time (Tuesday and Thursday 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.). It will be taught by Arthur L. Henry, whose graduate degrees in historical theology were done at Yale and the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley. A former Fulbright scholar at the University of Salzburg, Austria, Dr. Henry currently serves the Village Lutheran Church (LCA) on the UCLA perimeter. There will be no charge for any changes which need to be made as a result of Dr. Bromiley's illness. (Dean Robert Meyer, x. 282)
